

APPLICANT SUPPORT SERVICES

APPLICATION SUPPORT

The King Khalid Foundation and project partner AccountAbility offer one-on-one applicant support, via individual sessions to answer questions and provide guidance in terms of completing the application.

Applicants can inquire for an individual conference call with the AccountAbility analyst team during the application period.

Applicants can contact the following email if they have further questions:

kkasa@kkf.org.sa

WEBINARS

Join our online webinars, offered during the application period, to learn more about the Award's process and contents, and assessment methodology.

Visit the Award timeline section, available on the Resource Center, for information on the specific dates the webinars are hosted.

APPLICATION COMPLETENESS REVIEW

The Application Completeness Review check is offered to eligible applicants during level 2 of the application. The review aims to provide applicants with an assessment of how complete their application is, and notably offers:

- Quality review of the questionnaire's completeness
- Final check to make sure the application has been properly filled out
- Supporting documentation has been successfully submitted
- There is successful input of numerical data
- Highlight any missing data and supporting documentation

SCORECARD REVIEW SESSION

We encourage all applicants to get in touch with the Award team to schedule a dedicated session to go through their Scorecard Reports, and discuss the key areas for improvement.

Scorecard sessions are offered either the day of the Leading Practices Workshop, or remotely via conference calls.